NC Renaissance is an inspiring program for high-achieving rising juniors from rural NC communities to pursue their educational aspirations while developing unique leadership skills. It is an educational four-day experience that exposes potential scholars to the many educational opportunities at a pre-eminent four-year university.

NCR participants live on campus; interact with faculty, staff and current students; participate in educational, cultural and social activities; and learn about admissions and college affordability. Additionally, students participate in leadership and team building activities, as well as community service.

There is a non-refundable $25 program fee, which includes all meals, housing, t-shirt and program materials (does not include travel costs).

NC Renaissance will challenge and encourage you to become a leader. You will leave knowing more about yourself and others and how to make a college experience work for you.
