NC Renaissance - JOIN US! APPLY TODAY!

NC Renaissance engages NC residents from rural counties to participate in an educational four-day experience that exposes them to the many educational opportunities a four-year university provides. The program inspires high-achieving scholars to pursue their educational aspirations while developing unique leadership skills. Rural counties are designated as Tier 1 or Tier 2 by the NC Department of Commerce.

HOW DO I APPLY?

1. Apply online. Apply at go.unc.edu/NCRenaissance by 11:59 p.m. EST, March 1, 2020.

2. Submit your unofficial high school transcript. Please ask your counselor to send you a scanned copy of your transcript. Upload this transcript to your application form. You may mail or fax your transcript, if needed.

Deadlines

We encourage you to start early so you’ll have plenty of time to submit a thoughtful application. We plan to notify applicants of a decision in April.

Application deadline: February 1, 2020
Participant application deadline February 1, 2020
NCR Registration open April 1, 2020
Registration deadline May 1, 2020

QUESTIONS?

University Office for Diversity & Inclusion (919) 843-6086 ncr@unc.edu

LEARN MORE:
go.unc.edu/ncrenaissance

Highlights include the following:

- Spend four days living in a Carolina residence hall.
- Learn alongside diverse participants from across the state and interact with Carolina’s world-renowned faculty and staff.
- Learn about admissions procedures and college affordability.
- Engage in community service and leadership activities.
- Become knowledgeable about and prepared for the ACT and SAT.
- Get the inside scoop from current Tar Heels on what it’s like to be a Carolina student!